A Nervous Woman

Will often feel compelled to stop the clock whose ticking seems unbearable to her. In such a nervous condition the woman needs a building up of the entire system. It is useless to attempt the cure of the nerves while the cause of the nervousness remains uncured. A very common cause of nervousness in women is a diseased condition of the delicate womanly organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly diseases and the nervousness which they cause. It changes irregularity to regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is a perfect tonic and nerve, tranquillizing the nerves, promoting the appetite and inducing refreshing sleep.

"I was so nervous I had to have some one by my side all the time, even in the daytime, and I could hardly eat anything," writes Mrs. Selma Erickson, of 405 Rice Street, St. Paul, Minn. "I quit all the doctors and began taking your medicine; I gained right along. I am as well and feel as good as ever."

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

SHOT WIFE IN CHURCH.

During the early morning communion service at the German Lutheran Church at Lacrosse, Wis., yesterday, Herman Rosow, a painter, entered the church behind his wife and her mother, shot her twice and then turned the weapon upon himself, inflicting a wound which will likely prove fatal. Rosow was married to Miss Weiss three years ago at the home of her widowed mother. She was a factory girl. Rosow was employed by the Lacrosse Carriage Company. Because the husband became a drunkard and refused to provide for his young wife, she left him, returning to live with her mother. Several times Rosow sent notes threatening to kill her if she did not return to him, but the girl, though terrorized, refused to again have anything to do with him. Yesterday morning Rosow took a position in a livery stable near by, opposite the church. He had failed to accomplish his premeditated purpose in any other manner. When his wife appeared and entered the church Rosow followed, walking behind her down the aisle to the middle of the edifice. Stepping up behind her he muttered something in her ear, and as she turned fired into her breast. The woman reeled, then staggered away, and as she fell to the floor he fired again and the second bullet entering her back between the shoulders. A panic ensued and men, women and children rushed screaming from the scene. Rosow fled to the vestibule of the church, and placing the weapon against his breast fired. The bullet took effect, but a second failed and struck the wall behind him. Running from the church he was captured a half block away by E. H. Deer, a former policeman, and easily submitted to arrest. As he was being taken to the police headquarters he fell from the loss of blood and was driven to a hospital. He is believed to be dying. Physicians say he cannot live, the bullet having reached a vital organ. The woman is dying.

FATAL SHOOTING.

A fatal shooting affair occurred near the foot of Tanner's Bridge, in Marksville district, Page county, 11 miles south of Luray, about twilight Saturday, in which Mrs. Annie L. Alger, wife of Ashby Alger, of that section, was instantly killed, having been shot by Philip Alger, a brother of Ashby Alger. The Alger, together with several friends, had left Marksville early in the evening for their home, several miles distant, some of the party being on horseback, while others were walking. The testimony of Ashby Alger at the inquest, held at Marksville yesterday evening before the coroner, Dr. W. L. Hudson, of Luray, was that the members of the party had proceeded peacefully on their journey homeward until they reached the foot of Tanner's Bridge, when Philip Alger, who was in advance of the others, wheeled around in the road and fired a shot in the direction of those behind, demanding, with an oath, that they come no farther. Mrs. Alger was in the front and received the ball in the abdomen, producing instant death. The dead woman's husband immediately left the scene of the tragedy, starting in the direction of Marksville for an officer, but soon met several friends, and with them returned to where his wife was lying in the road, her head being supported by Mrs. John W. Alger, mother of the Alger. When he reached the spot he says that Philip Alger was standing over the dead body of his wife, waving his pistol and remarking, "her, let her go!" At this juncture Ashby Alger struck Philip with a rock, and the two men in the struggle for the possession of the pistol fell almost across the body of the dead woman. In the fall the revolver fell out of Philip's hand and was seized by Ashby. Deputy Sheriff F. S. Kibler placed Alger under arrest. The dead woman was about 19 years of age. The man who did the shooting is apparently about 24 years of age.

AN ESCAPED LION CREATES A PANIC.
Thousands of visitors to Coney Island were thrown into a panic on Saturday by the escape from an amusement park of a lion, which ran through the crowded streets pursued by police and trainers until he was driven into a corner and secured. The lion on being brought out of his cage to go through a ring performance with an elephant, suddenly became enraged and leaping on the elephant's back, buried his teeth and claws in the big brute's shoulder. Trumpeting loudly the elephant rushed around the ring and finally succeeded in gripping the lion with his trunk, tore him from his hold and buried him into a lagoon nearby. By this time the terrified audience had fled and communicated the panic to the crowds in the street. The lion, half-drowned, scrambled out of the lagoon and leaped through a window into a bar-room and thence into the street. When recaptured the lion appeared to be weary, and was probably more frightened than any of his pursuers.

LAW AMENDED.—Governor Montague on Saturday mailed copies of the recent amendments passed by Congress to the naturalization laws of the United States to each judge in the State. The following extract from the Governor's letter will give an idea of the changes: "In order to render a court judgment of naturalization valid the court record must show that the person naturalized is not opposed to all organized government nor affiliated with any organization so opposed; that he does not advocate the unlawful assaulting or killing of officers of government, and has not violated any of the provisions of the said act to regulate the emigration of aliens, and has complied with the terms of previous acts on the subject of naturalization. The act requires, also, that every certificate of naturalization shall specifically recite

Avoid Substitutes!

An honest dealer will sell an honest remedy when it is called for by a customer, will use honest drugs in filling prescriptions, and can be safely trusted as a family druggist.

A dishonest dealer, who tries to sell a customer a cheap substitute of his own when a standard remedy is asked for, will not hesitate to use impure and injurious drugs.

We caution our patrons to guard against cheap, so-called cough medicine that is offered at a low price by dealers. Insist on getting the OLD RELIABLE

Little, merchant, Hancock, Md. For sale by Richard Gibson.
